Spring 2016

Catalog description. Beginning Spanish language with primary emphasis on the development of audio-lingual skills. Attention will also be given to the interrelatedness of language and civilization and culture. Additional attention will be given to the development of reading and writing. Students will be expected to spend several hours per week in the language laboratory. Not recommended for students with any previous study of Spanish. 4 units.

Course textbook and materials
2. Print handouts in SacCT: “Oral Proficiencies” a 15-page packet to bring every day.
3. Dictionary (if you don’t use the one in WileyPlus)

Failure to bring these required materials to class will result in deduction of points from class participation.

Student Learning Objectives/Outcomes for SPAN 1A. At the end of the course students can reasonably expect to:

1. Demonstrate that they are able to engage in conversations (express, describe, discuss, provide and obtain information) in culturally appropriate ways in the following areas:

   • You and the other students: Greetings, introductions and saying goodbye; nationality and stating where you and others are from; descriptions of people; cognates; numbers 0-59; ex-changing phone numbers, e-mail addresses and birthdays; telling time, days of the week and dates.

   • Campus life: classes and schedules; telling time of events; location of places on campus; classroom objects; colors; expressing to whom things belong; states of being and emotions; Spanish and Hispanic culture; professions; talking about going places; asking and answering questions.

   • Family, friends and habitual activities: family and friends; possessions; age; habitual activities in the present; telling a friend what to do; descriptions of people (continue), places and things; marital status; family traditions, values, and trends in the Hispanic world.

   • Activities in your free time and future activities: likes and dislikes, pastimes, and other habitual activities in the present; opinions, doubts and obligations; telling a friend what to do (continue); weather and seasons; talking about who and what you know; future activities, leisure activities in the Hispanic world.

2. Demonstrate that they are able to understand and interpret written language on a variety of topics.

3. Demonstrate that they are able to understand the culture where Spanish is spoken through comparisons of the culture studied and their own. They are able to perform internet searches in the language and explore the perspectives, products, and practices of the culture.

4. Demonstrate that they are able to understand the nature of Spanish through comparisons of the language studied and their own.

5. Demonstrate that they are able to understand and respond to simple statements and questions and participate in informal conversation within the cultural context.

Study and do the homework EVERY DAY!
Study and do the homework EVERY DAY!

Method of Instruction. The course will be conducted in Spanish as much as possible—with some English explanation provided when necessary on grammatical structures—through video-lecture/presentation, daily pair/group (oral) activities, discussion of assigned readings and exercises, student-teacher interactions; memorized presentations; reading and listening to semi-authentic/authentic materials; the study of Spanish speaking countries’ culture; interaction with Spanish language tutor; daily homework and online activities on WileyPLUS (WP) and/or SacCT.

All online activities are due by 10 am of the day marked in the course outline. (Do not ask for changes!!!). Most of these activities will be asynchronous, so you may do them the night before the day they are due).

SacCT. Students are expected to check SacCT daily for announcements, homework and information regarding the class. It is expected that you log on SacCT on daily basis, and work on online assignments (WP and SacCT). It is your responsibility to check the online daily schedule and study these materials.

The "webonline" of this course is on Wednesdays. On those days, we will not be meeting in class, but there will be several activities online for you to do by 10:00 am of the date marked in the course outline. You will need to sign on to SacCT and/or WP to do the activities, and we will count that as the attendance for the online days. If you don’t do the online activities the due date, you will be considered absent that day, and the absence will count toward the number of absences you are allowed. You are expected to work on any homework that is due up to that day and participate in any activities as directed by your instructors. Obviously, your instructors will be available for any questions via e-mail.

IMPORTANT: Do not use SacCT to e-mail your instructor. The electronic address to use is: mayberry@csus.edu

Grading Breakdown
A. 3 Exams 45% (3 x 15%)
B. Homework and quizzes 20% (DO homework every day!!!!)
C. DIALOGUES/ Interviews
   • DIALOGUE/Interview 1 5%
   • Final Exam (DIALOGUE/Interview 2) 15%
D. Attendance and Class Participation 10%
E. Group Activity 5% (Instructions on this later)

Scores are rounded up or down, i.e., 82.5 will be considered an 83, but 82.25 will be an 82.
Grades are kept in numerical form until the end of the course, at which time they are averaged to determine the final letter grade (94-100=A, 90-93=A-, 87-89=B+, 83-86=B, 80-82=B-, 77-79=C+, 73-76=C, 70-72=C-, 67-69=D+, 64-66=D, 60-63=D-, and below 60=F). Please do not expect your instructor to give you a grade (letter or numeric) before this time. You may, however, ask to see your numerical scores of tests, quizzes, etc, at any time.

IMPORTANT:
An “I” grade is ONLY assigned when the student has completed most of the requirements for this course (85% of the course components). The student must be receiving at least a “C” on all other work. An “I” cannot be assigned when it is necessary for the student to attend additional class meetings to complete the course requirements, when the student has not kept a regular attendance (for example, if the student has more than 2 absences in this 8-week course (1A) as stated in the attendance policy below), or if the student has already been allowed to make up one assignment due to an excused absence (see make-up policies below).

Testing: Please note the day of the midterms and final exam on the course calendar. All exams must be taken when scheduled and not at other times—No exceptions!
Study and do the homework EVERY DAY!

COURSE COMPONENTS:

* A. Mid-term exams 45%. There will be 3 mid-exams for this course to be completed in 50 minutes each. Each exam will have the following parts: listening comprehension, grammar, reading comprehension, culture, vocabulary and writing. Exams will be mainly based on the material covered in class from Con Brío and any additional information (handouts, extra activities, etc.) provided by the instructor in class. Each exam will include vocabulary and grammar from previous chapters that you should be able to use.

Final Exam. The final exam is the second interview in the semester to be done during approximately the last week of instruction. See “Oral Interviews” below for more information.

* B. Homework and quizzes 20%. Some homework (such as the video-lectures of grammar and their corresponding quizzes; study of vocabulary and their corresponding quizzes; study of cultural readings, etc.) will be done before class-time (so you become familiar with new vocabulary and grammar) and some will be done in and after class (to verify your understanding of the material). There are more than 80 homework assignments for this course. Homework will help you to be ready to participate in class-time activities.

Homework assignments will be mostly from Con Brío and WileyPLUS, but there may be other homework (e.g. Assessments in SacCT, Internet searches, Oral Proficiencies, Cultural readings, quizzes, etc.). Make sure to check the schedule for due dates. I recommend that you invent an effective way to organize your homework (e.g. binder, making copies, etc.) and develop good study skills and habits – Review what you learn every day!

Activities that count as ‘homework and quizzes’:

- Grammar video-lectures and quizzes.
- WileyPLUS exercises. Most of the homework will be done in the WileyPLUS site. You can do the exercises as many times as you want/need. For some assignments there may be assistance (‘see the textbook’or ‘the correct answer’). However, the idea is for you to study before doing the assignments; therefore, if after a second attempt you click to see the answers, you will have a 70% point potential. Please, read the Question Policies for each assignment.
- “Assessments” in SacCT. You can do the exercises as many times as you want/need up to the due date. I’ll count the average grade of all the trials.
- Oral Proficiencies (OPs). In SacCT, there is a package of questions for practicing conversation. See below under “Oral Proficiencies” for more information about this part of the homework.
- Some cultural readings will be assigned from the book.
- Quizzes. I will give several (grammar, cultural, and/or vocabulary) quizzes during the semester.
- Audio recording activities. These activities will enable you to gauge your pronunciation and the material covered in class and are a valuable tool for your self-assessment. Student will submit audio files (mp3 file) to SacCT once each week by Friday 5 pm. If you do not know how to record an mp3, get assistance from the Student Technology Center (ARC 3007, 278-4403), which is part of IRT. Information about the center is available at their website: http://www.csus.edu/irt/STC/index.html.

Due dates for WileyPLUS exercises and Oral Proficiencies are in the Course Outline (but all dates and assignments are subject to change).

SUGGESTIONS FOR YOUR HOMEWORK:

a. Watch video-lectures of grammar and take notes before doing the quizzes and/or homework.

b. Do your homework with your book closed to check for comprehension and retention of the material.

c. Study vocabulary frequently (even vocabulary from previous chapters) and memorize it. Using new words to form new sentences will help you with the memorization process.

Study and do the homework EVERY DAY!
d. Study grammar frequently (including grammar from previous chapters). Use the new grammar with vocabulary from previous chapters to form new sentences.
e. READ and understand what you are supposed to do. Do not lose points for not reading the instructions.
f. USE a dictionary.
g. INCOMPLETE HOMEWORK. You will have the option to resubmit* homework marked “incomplete”; in terms of grades, “incomplete homework” will be treated as “Redo Homework” (see below).
h. REDO HOMEWORK. Students have the option to re-submit* homework marked as “re-do” the class meeting after the due date for a maximum of 9 points of 10. If you turn it in two days after the due date, homework will be based on 8 points of 10 as the highest possible score. I won't accept anything after that, and the grade for that homework will be a zero.
   * When you resubmit, you must turn in both assignments (original and revised one, stapled together) in order for you to receive credit for the redo.

LATE HOMEWORK POLICY:

- Wiley Plus (WP). If you do not complete the WP activities by the due date, you can submit late homework, but there will be a 30% score reduction for late submissions.
- Other homework (OPs or anything that is not included in SacCT or WP). One-day late homework will be based on 9 points of 10 as the highest possible score; two-day late homework will be based on 8 points of 10 as the highest possible score. I won't accept anything after that, and the grade for that homework will be a zero.
- DO NOT make it a habit of turning late or incomplete homework. Starting with the 5th late or incomplete homework, any late or incomplete homework will be based on 5 points (out of 10) as the highest possible score.

For homework from the book (turned in on paper, as supposed to SacCT or WileyPlus):
a. Identify your homework on the right top corner: Name, date, chapter number, exercise number and page number. Example:
   Nombre: John Doe
   Fecha: 2 de octubre de 2008
   Capítulo 5, ejercicio 1-1, página 148
b. Your homework should include questions and answers. Any homework that only has the answers will not be graded (that is, I will mark it as “Incomplete” and you will get a zero in that homework).

Oral Proficiencies (OPs). 15-page packet. The oral proficiencies consist of a list of questions in SacCT that will help you practice vocabulary and grammar in context while you practice listening and speaking skills in Spanish. The due dates are in the course outline below; any changes will be posted on SacCT.
1. Answer each question in a word document.
2. Enter the document with answers in SacCT and bring one paper copy to practice in class and turn in to your professor. (No hand-written answers will be accepted!)
3. Practice with a partner in class so you will be ready to practice.

C. Dialogues/Interviews 20%. Your ability to communicate in Spanish will be formally evaluated through two interviews with a partner and your instructor. Students sign up for a 20-minute time slot. Students need to prepare a 4 to 5-minute conversation with a partner using the Oral Proficiencies as a guide. Each person needs to ask at least five complete questions. Afterwards, you instructor will ask follow-up questions. Students must also come prepared to ask instructor at least two questions, each. No written notes may be used or referred to during the interview since the goal is to have a relatively natural exchange of information through simple oral communication.
Study and do the homework EVERY DAY!

- DIALOGUE/Interview 1 (5%). In order to accommodate all students, Interview 1 (one) will be on Wednesdays and/or during office hours.
- DIALOGUE/Interview 2 (final exam). 15%. Given time limitations and the large number of students to be evaluated, the oral interview is done with 2 students at a time, during approximately the last week of instruction.

IMPORTANT: The Oral Proficiencies will prepare you for the Dialogues/interview and for the oral part of tests.

* You will receive more specific information from your instructor(s) about this part of your grade.

D. Attendance and Class Participation 10%.

a. Attendance Policy during the first two weeks of instruction. Students who fail to attend any two class meetings will be administratively dropped. ****

b. Attendance policy after the first two weeks of the semester. In total, students are allowed TWO (2) absences during this entire 8-week course (SPAN 1A) and do not have to give any reason for them (therefore, I do not need to see any doctors’ notices). Use these absences for when you are sick or for whatever reason because these are the only absences that will not affect your grade. If you are absent more than twice during this 8-week course, one point will be deducted from your final grade starting with the 3rd absence. For example, if you miss five times, you will lose three points off your attendance grade and final grade.

More than 6 absences in this 8-week course (SPAN 1A) will result in an automatic “F” grade.

OJO: 2 TARDIES or 2 TIMES LEAVING CLASS EARLY equal ONE ABSENCE. If you know you cannot be on time for this class or are going to be missing more than two times, drop this class now and take it at another time/section/semester when you don’t have any conflicts.

Attendance will be taken at least twice during each class meeting. Due to the nature and intensity of language courses, the emphasis on oral practice, participation, and the pace of the course, attendance is mandatory. Regular attendance at all class meetings and the LAB is expected and is very important for your success since everything that is said or done in class is considered test material. The course meets three times a week and one day is online. All students are expected to arrive on time and participate actively for the entire class session. Chronic tardiness and absences will affect your attendance and participation grade. Therefore, in order to get the attendance and participation points you must:

- avoid excessive absences and tardiness because if you are not in class, you do not participate (see “Attendance Policy” above)
- come to class fully prepared (see “Preparing for class” below)
- volunteer to participate in all activities (see “Participation” below)
- turn off your cellular, your BlackBerry, your laptop, Ipod, pager and any other device not pertinent to the class.
- avoid: sleeping in class, reading the newspaper, coming late often, being distracted by your cellular, Ipod, etc.

Participation. This includes your preparation for class (do homework), your willingness to participate in all the activities in class, such as conversations with your instructor and with classmates and pair/group work. The class period is devoted to speaking Spanish rather than to speaking about the language, therefore, your preparation for class is very important.

Preparing for class. You are responsible for preparing the scheduled material BEFORE coming to class. This implies watching the grammar video-lectures, and careful preparation of all homework assigned and material from the text, SacCT and WileyPlus.

Make-up policy on assignments done in class (compositions, interviews, Tests, and quizzes.) I may give only one make-up per person during this 8-week course if you have an excused absence (see definition below) provided that attendance and participation have otherwise been regular (more than 2 absences in this 8-week course).
Study and do the homework EVERY DAY!

SPAN 1A course is not regular attendance). After that, any other assignments that you missed will have a zero.

Excused absences. In the event of an illness, documented emergency, etc., you will need to submit appropriate documentation of your illness and/or emergency to your instructor the next class meeting. IMPORTANT: A note from the Student Health Center is not enough documentation because it does not document the nature of the emergency/illness.

If the petition for make-up is approved, you must arrange a make-up time with the instructor within one week of the approval. If the petition is not approved, you will receive a zero on the missed assignment. Please keep in mind that petitions are only approved if the assignment is missed for compelling documented reason. Also, consider that there is only one make-up per person during this 8-week course (SPAN 1A), therefore, it is wise to reserve make-ups for major assignments.

Extra credit. There are very few points offered for extra credit; therefore, do not count on extra credit to make-up for poor performance during the semester (or on one or more exams and/or assignments).

• All exams have one or two points as extra-credit.
• Cultural Event. For up to 1.5 extra points in your final grade, attend an event related to the culture of countries (other than the USA) where Spanish is spoken. Submit a one-page typed report in Spanish. In the report, you will contrast this cultural event with a similar cultural event in the United States. Mention similarities and/or differences. The report has to be submitted no later than the next to the last Thursday of classes in the semester (May 5th, 2015 for spring 2016). The report will be graded on content (addressing similarities and differences between the events) and grammar (accents, spelling, etc.). You are encouraged to get your paper proofread it by a Spanish speaker.

Group Work and Scholastic Honesty
Working with other students is an extremely effective means of studying. Not everyone in the group needs to be at the same proficiency level. Get together with other students to practice conversation or to help each other understand the grammar explanations. Make sure, however, that you do not simply copy another student’s work and turn it in as your own.

Cheating will not be tolerated. Turning in work that you did not write, for which you had considerable direct help from someone else, or which have translated by a translation service or computer program will be considered cheating. Anyone copying from others, allowing others to copy their work, or using information fraudulently obtained will receive an F in this class and will be reported to the Student Affair’s Office.

How not to plagiarize. Go to http://library.csus.edu/content2.asp?pageID=353

Classroom Courtesy
Please use laptops, pagers, Ipods and cellular phones while in the classroom only for activities pertinent to the class. When your instructor is talking, you and other students need to listen. When your instructor provides time for pair and/or group work, you need to work with your partner or group. This is not the time to talk to your instructor about matters unrelated to the assigned activity, work on other assignments or talk in a language other than Spanish: these matters must be handled after class, during office hours, or by appointment. You will be asked to leave if you engage in any disruptive behavior.

Class Procedure and General Goals
The primary focus of this first semester of Spanish is the development of your ability to understand native spoken and written Spanish and to increase your skill at expressing yourself in basic everyday situations. Listening comprehension and reading are the basis for the sound acquisition of a foreign language. Remember that as a child learning your first language, you had lots of time to listen before you attempted to speak. Don’t be impatient with yourself when you find that you can understand far more than you can produce. That is only natural—your speaking and writing abilities will always lag slightly behind your ability to understand.
Study and do the homework EVERY DAY!

You cannot expect to acquire native-like competence in a foreign language in one or two years. You can, however, expect to be able to communicate with native speakers of Spanish even though you make mistakes. The goal of this course is communicative competence, not oral grammatical perfection. Grammatical perfection in reading and writing (for example in written homework, quizzes and tests), however, is possible and suggested as it will make your understanding of the language easier as time goes by. Therefore, it is recommended that, although we do not do drill exercises in class, you should spend time at home learning and memorizing the vocabulary and verbal forms covered in class. This class will use reading and writing activities to enhance your grasp of vocabulary and to provide you with opportunities to express yourself in Spanish.

Special needs
Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD) offers a wide range of support services and accommodations to students based on appropriate documentation, nature of disability, and academic need in order to ensure equal access and opportunity to pursue their educational goals. In order to initiate services, students must submit medical or professional documentation to SSWG, Lassen 1008, (916) 278-6955. See details in the SSWG webpage at http://www.csus.edu/sswd/.

Before course accommodations can be made, a student needs to request accommodation to SSWG and provide a letter from SSWG to the instructor.

Please discuss your accommodations needs with us during office hours early in the semester.

* Note: All dates and assignments are subject to change. I will announce the changes in class. However, if you miss class make sure to follow the syllabus regarding watching the video-lectures, study the vocabulary and work on related quizzes and homework. Also, your best bet for a quick response is to contact a classmate before the following class by phone, or e-mail. If you e-mail us, allow between 24 up to 48 hours for replies. On weekends, replies may take longer.

ATTENTION: Classroom time will be devoted to activities that will allow you to practice your skills of understanding and interacting in Spanish. Classroom time will generally not be spent doing grammar drills, translating, or listening to lengthy explanations of grammar. If you feel you need to be drilled more extensively in grammar, watch the video-lectures, use the “Study Tools” section on the Con Brío website and/or set up an appointment with your instructors. Please, seek any extra assistance that is needed for success in this class.

* Record all homework. You may need to use another piece of paper. Get an average (add them and divide by the total number of homework). Write the average under "Calificación".
 Multiply what you get in "Calificación" by the % and write the answer in "Points".

The total maximum points you will accumulate for the semester is 100. As the semester progresses, you may calculate how many points you have accumulated at any point.
